

Art of Play + Make Mini Abstracts

Supply List

- Cradled wood panels, at least 4 that are 8" x 8" x 1 1/2" deep. Available from Blick, Amazon, and other art supply stores. Bring more if you are a fast painter.
- Stretched canvas, 24" x 24". One to three. Bring more if you are a fast painter.
- One pad of watercolor paper, 24" x 16", 12 sheets.
- Acrylic paint – Medium or fluid body. At least one each of basic colors: yellow, orange, red, green, blue, purple, white, black. Professional quality brands – Golden, Liquitex, Nova, Utrecht, Chroma. Not recommend -- craft paint or house paint.

If you are new to acrylic, you may want to start with a starter set:

- Nova Color Starter Bundle.
  - Golden A-Z Acrylic Explorer Set – includes several colors & bodies of paint as well as mediums
  - Liquitex acrylic paint set of 8 primary colors. Also comes in sets of 8, 12, 24, 36, 48 or 72 paints.
- Gesso: white &/or clear. Good brands – Nova, Golden, Liquitex.
  - Tools – A mix of brushes in small to large sizes. You may also want a collection of unusual tools -- spatula, scraper, old credit card, sticks.
  - Mark making – A variety of mark makers, for example: everyday pencils, charcoal or graphite pencils, oil pastel sticks (Sennelier is a good brand), Stabilo Woody sticks, gel sticks (Kingart is a good brand).
  - Small plastic containers with lids for mixing & saving paint. Example: 1 pint deli tub.
  - Use what you have on hand, no need to buy all new supplies.
  - PROVIDED: water buckets, paper towels, paper plates, scissors, toolbox, soap.